

Rachel J. Carter

Senior Director of Membership,
National Golf Course Owners Association

Rachel is the Senior Director of Membership for the NGCOA. She has been a part of golf operations for over 20 years, with operational and management experience.

Her background includes success specifically in customer growth and engagement at golf operations, and now does the same for NGCOA. Her goal every day is to add value to our members experience, and to support their success in their golf business.