

Shane Conroy

Great Lakes Field Representative, Golf Course Superintendents Association of America

A former assistant golf course superintendent in the Chicagoland area, Shane is currently the Great Lakes field staff representative for the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America (GCSAA), a role he has held for the past eight years.

Focusing on advancing the industry, Shane works with 17 affiliated chapters, thousands of members, and allied industries to name a few.