

Brian Calley

CEO, Small Business Association of Michigan

As President and CEO of the Small Business Association of Michigan, Brian combines the skills acquired from an accomplished private sector career with a bold and effective track record in public office.

He brings a daring, pragmatic and inclusive problem solving approach to addressing the needs and interests of small businesses.